GENERAL INFORMATION

On January 11, 2023, the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare/Food Safety and Standards Authority of India (FSSAI) issued Notification No. F. No. TIC-B05/5/2022-IMPORTS-FSSAI (see, Appendix I). The FSSAI notification lists 79 designated ports-of-entry for certain categories of high-risk food products to be imported into India. These categories include:

- Milk and milk products
- Egg powder
- Meat and meat products, including poultry
- Fish and fish products
- Foods for infant nutrition/infant foods
- Nutraceuticals, health supplements, foods for dietary uses, probiotic and prebiotic foods, and foods for special medical purposes.

The effective implementation date for this new FSSAI order is March 1, 2023. Based on the stakeholders' comments received, the FSSAI, through the present order, intends to facilitate trade supposedly through a robust import control system combined with efficient monitoring and traceability of high-risk products. The FSSAI has stationed its officials at all the newly designated ports. The FSSAI notes that the list is subject to periodic updating from time to time.

A comparison between the current list of January 13, 2023, and the previous list issued by the FSSAI on October 17, 2022, reveals the inclusion of entry points for Chennai, Delhi, Kolkata, Goa, Punjab, and Rajasthan. The earlier FSSAI list included only 61 entry points in comparison to 79 entry points found on the currently notified list.
