Report Highlights:

Government of India notified standards for Colostrum and Colostrum Products for comments from World Trade Organization (WTO) Sanitary and Phytosanitary Measures (SPS) Committee members. The deadline for comments is sixty days from the date of notification to WTO. To date, this regulation has not been notified to the WTO.

General Information:

Disclaimer: The information contained in this report was retrieved from the Government of India (GOI) website: <http://www.fssai.gov.in/>. The Office of Agricultural Affairs and/or the U.S. Government make no claim of accuracy or authenticity. The summary below is based on a cursory review of the subject announcement and, therefore, should not under any circumstances be viewed as a definitive interpretation of the regulation in question, or of its implications for U.S. agricultural trade interests.

The Government of India's (GOI) Food Safety and Standards Authority of India (FSSAI) notified standards for Colostrum and Colostrum Products for comments from Sanitary and Phytosanitary Measures (SPS) committee members. The notification amends Food Safety and Standards Regulations 2011 (Food Products Standards and Food Additives) to provide new definitions and standards for Colostrum and Colostrum Products. The deadline for comments for World Trade Organization (WTO) Sanitary and Phytosanitary Measures (SPS) Committee members is sixty days from the date of notification to WTO. To date, this regulation has not been notified to the WTO.

The draft regulation for WTO SPS committee members can be accessed at Draft standards for Colostrum and Colostrum Products on the FSSAI website.
