Report Highlights:

This report updates a June 23, 2021 FAS Mexico City (MX2021-0034) notification to U.S. exporters of raw bovine skins and hides on changing import requirements for those products. Due to pending revisions to the import requirement sheet (HRZ), U.S. exporters are encouraged to work very closely with their Mexican counterparts (importer, customs broker, etc.) and with National Service of Food Quality and Safety’s (SENASICA) personnel to receive the latest import indications.
As reported on June 23, 2021 in FAS Mexico City’s report number MX2021-0034, Mexico is reworking import requirements for U.S. raw bovine skins and hides. Due to expected changes to the import requirement sheet (HRZ), exporters are reminded to work closely with their Mexican importer, customs broker, customer, etc. and with National Service of Food Quality and Safety’s (SENASICA) personnel if there are any uncertainties. When SENASICA publishes the new HRZ, FAS Mexico City will issue a new GAIN report. In the meantime, for questions or concerns contact SENASICA at AtencionCiudadana@senasica.gob.mx or FAS Mexico at AgMexico@usda.gov.
