DISCLAIMER: This report was prepared by the Office of Agricultural Affairs of the Foreign Agricultural Service of the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA-FAS) in Bogota, Colombia, for U.S. exporters of food and agricultural products. While every possible care was taken in the preparation of this report, the information provided may not be completely accurate either because policies have changed since its preparation, or because clear and consistent information about these policies was not available. It is highly recommended that U.S. exporters verify the full set of import requirements with their foreign customers, who are normally best equipped to research such matters with local authorities, before any goods are shipped. FINAL IMPORT APPROVALS OF ANY PRODUCT IS SUBJECT TO THE IMPORTING COUNTRY'S RULES AND REGULATIONS AS INTERPRETED BY BORDER OFFICIALS AT THE TIME OF PRODUCT ENTRY.

Executive Summary

This report contains information on Colombia's certificate requirements established by Colombian government authorities for the importation of U.S. food and agricultural products into Colombia. These requirements stem from regulations issued primarily by the Ministry of Health and Social Protection (MHSP), the National Institute for the Surveillance of Food and Medicines (INVIMA), the Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Development (MARD), and the Colombian Institute for Agriculture and Livestock (ICA). ICA is housed under MARD and INVIMA is housed under MHSP. U.S. exporters are encouraged to work closely with their Colombian clients on delivering relevant certificates to the appropriate government authorities.

 Since March, 2023, the Food Safety and Inspection Service (FSIS) and Colombian authorities transitioned from paper FSIS Export Certificates of Wholesomeness for Meat and Poultry (FSIS Form 9060-5) and Siluriform Fish (FSIS Form 9060-5S) to digital certificates generated through the Public Health Information System (PHIS).*

Purpose of specific export certificates.

1. Import Zoosanitary Permit

This document is issued by ICA to the local importer and provides a formal authorization for the local importer to import certain animal and animal-derived products into Colombia under animal health requirements.

2. Import Phytosanitary Permit

This document is issued by ICA to the local importer and provides a formal authorization for the local importer to import certain plant or plant products into Colombia under plant health requirements.

3. Phytosanitary Export Certificate

This document is required by ICA to prevent the introduction of foreign pests and diseases into Colombia. Certificates are issued by USDA.

4. Zoosanitary Export Certificate

This document is required by ICA to protect animal health and ensure foreign animal diseases are not introduced into Colombia. Certificates are issued by USDA.

5. Export Sanitary Certificate

This document is required by MHSP (Decree 2478 of 2018) and INVIMA for food safety purposes. Per Resolution 719 of 2015, food products that are classified as “medium” or “high” risk must submit this sanitary certificate.

6. Certificate of Free Sale

This certificate is required for the registration of processed food products with INVIMA. The purpose of this certificate is to provide assurance to the Colombian authorities that the product is fit for human consumption and is freely sold in the country of origin. Registration of the product is valid for five, seven, or ten years depending on the risk classification assigned to the product (Resolution 719 of 2015). See Section I table.

SECTION II. SPECIFIC ATTESTATIONS REQUIRED ON EXPORT CERTIFICATES

A competent government authority from the exporting country must issue all required health and food safety certificates that Colombian authorities require. Please see the FAIRS Annual Country Report to see registration requirements for different products. The certificate of free sale required by INVIMA for product registration and shipments entering Colombia must state that the product is of “free sale” in the country of origin and that the product is fit for human consumption. ICA requires specific attestations and traceability information on export certificates.

SECTION III. GOVERNMENT CERTIFICATE LEGAL ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

Original export certificates listed under Section I. must accompany each individual export consignment at the time of entry into Colombia. It should be noted that in most cases, products exported to Colombia for human consumption must meet entry requirements set by ICA (animal and plant health) and INVIMA (human health), particularly animal-derived products. INVIMA and ICA have inspectors at all entry points in Colombia and have the discretion to detain or reject shipments based on their findings. A common reason for detained shipments has to do with certificate issuance dates, incorrect lot numbers and expiration dates, as well as the presence of foreign material on the bottom of containers or stained boxes. Food exporters interested in selling to Colombian retail clients must register their products before shipping and must obtain an import permit in Colombia prior to applying for export certificates in the United States.

SECTION IV. OTHER CERTIFICATION/ ACCREDITATION REQUIREMENTS TO ENSURE MARKET ENTRY

U.S. Radiation Monitoring

Colombia does not have a specific regulation for irradiated products, so the general label requirements for food products labeling set in Resolution 5109 of 2005 apply to irradiated products. According to Article 9 of Resolution 5109, when a product has been subjected to ionizing radiation, this condition must be disclosed next to the name of the product in a visible way. A brief description of the radiation process after the product name is also required. The use of the international symbol for radiated products is discretionary, but when used, it must be displayed near the product name. Besides this labeling, Colombian regulations do not include any other mandatory attestation for irradiated products.
