General Information:

Introduction: This report summarizes an announcement by the Secretariat of Economy (SE) published in Mexico's Diario Oficial (Federal Register) on April 10, 2018, containing the maximum quota allotment of sugar to be exported to the United States for the 2017/18 sugar cycle, as a March 2018 update.

Disclaimer: This summary is based on a cursory review of the subject announcement and therefore should not, under any circumstances, be viewed as a definitive reading of the regulation in question, or of its implications for U.S. agricultural export trade interests. In the event of a discrepancy or discrepancies between this summary and the complete regulation or announcement as published in Spanish, the latter shall prevail.

Title: Notification of the Maximum Quota Allotment of Sugar up to the month of March 2018, to be exported to the United States from October 1, 2017 to September 30, 2018.

Executive Summary: In accordance with the Mexican government Agreement published in the Diario Oficial (Federal Register) on October 5, 2017, under which sugar exports to the United States are subject to prior authorization permits, and adjusted to the month of March, SE announced the amount of the total quota of sugar to be exported to the United States from October 1, 2017, to September 30, 2018 for the 2017/18 sugar cycle. The amount in metric tons raw value is 1,150,612.86, which is the same amount as announced in December 27, 2017 (See GAIN Report: Mexico Announces Maximum Sugar Export Quota to the United States MX 8003). This information is based on the U.S. needs as published in the March World Agricultural Supply and Demand Estimates (WASDE) report and the National Committee for the Sustainable Development of Sugar Cane (CONADESUCA) data.
