

Voluntary Report – Voluntary - Public Distribution

Date: March 17, 2023

Report Number: MX2023-0010

Report Name: Mexico Issues 2023 Corn Decree to Substitute Gradually
Biotech Corn Used for Human Consumption and for Animal Feed

Country: Mexico

Post: Mexico City

Report Category: Biotechnology and Other New Production Technologies, Biotechnology - Plants and Animals, Agriculture in the News

Prepared By: Alexander Chinh

Approved By: Abigail Nguema

Report Highlights:

On February 13, 2023, Mexico published a modified 2023 Corn Decree in the Diario Oficial Federal (DOF). The new Presidential decree abrogates the 2020 GE Corn Decree and is immediately effective on February 14, 2023.

On February 13, 2023, Mexico published a modified 2023 Corn Decree in the Diario Oficial Federal (DOF). The new Presidential decree abrogates the 2020 GE Corn Decree and is immediately effective on February 14, 2023.

Below please find the link to the new Corn Decree in the Diario Oficial Federal.

https://www.dof.gob.mx/nota_detalle.php?codigo=5679405&fecha=13/02/2023#gsc.tab=0

On March 6, 2023, the U.S. Trade Representative \(USTR\) requested technical Sanitary and Phytosanitary Measures (SPS) consultations on Mexico's February GE Corn Decree under the U.S.-Mexico-Canada-Agreement (USMCA).

Attachments:

No Attachments.