Rice Price - Weekly

Situation for the Week Ending October 28, 2011

Approved By:

Dwight Wilder

Prepared By:

Quan Tran

Report Highlights:

Export prices were offered at a wide range last week. The lower offered prices were mainly for small shipments (containerized sales). The higher offered prices were for large bulk vessel shipments since, according to exporters, there is insufficient available stock for any large quantity shipments.

Local rice paddy prices went down slightly last week, due mainly to very low buying demand from the export market.
